Industrial Park To Add Third Plant

Cameron is going to have a new industry, according to an announcement by the Cameron Industrial Foundation, Inc. The new concern will manufacture upholstered furniture. William Volker and Company, with home offices in Burlingame, California, a subsidiary of Mohasco Industries, Amsterdam, New York, announced that construction of a 45,000 square foot plant will begin immediately on a ten-acre tract in the Cameron Industrial Park.

Morris A. Cox, president of William Volker and Company, said, "We are happy to have a new plant in Cameron and are looking forward to our company becoming a part of the community."

Occupancy and production are scheduled for early 1973 with job opportunities for approximately 65 employees. Projected employment will be in excess of 150 employees.

Keith Raine, now of Portland, Oregon, will come to Cameron as the plant manager and will be moving to Cameron with his wife and three children in the near future.

A group of company officials will visit Cameron this week to finalize plans.

Walter J. Fullerton Construction and Steel Building Company of Taylor is the general contractor for the new building.

James Camp, president of CIF, Inc., said, "William Volker & Company is a highly respected firm, and we are fortunate to have their decision to locate in Cameron. We welcome them in behalf of the entire community and look forward to the beginning of their new operation in Cameron."

"Cox and I also appreciate greatly the work and assistance given by Fred Willis, industrial consultant, Texas Power & Light Company, Dallas, for helping bring this plant to Cameron."

FM Road Project Told For Milam

The Texas Highway Commission has approved a $40.4 million 1972 program for State highway safety and betterment and Farm to Market road improvement.

The program for Milam County includes a project on FM 1600 between 1.0 mile south of FM 845 and 24 miles south of 845, a distance of 0.5 mile consists of replacing two bridges and approaches, at an approximate cost of $79,800.

This project will be handled by Delton A. Kittrell, supervising resident engineer.

In all, 775 projects are proposed in 202 counties of the State.

Buckholts To Vote On Sewage Bonds

Directors of Milam County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 have set November 14 for a bond election to finance construction of a sewage collection system and treatment plant in the Buckholts area.

Frank Tomascek, president of the Water Control district, said the sewage system could be installed for an estimated $170,000. He said it would serve the 170 connections in the district.

The bond election is for $135,000. A $35,000 government grant would cover the remainder of the cost.

Polling place for the election will be the American Legion Hall in Buckholts. Absentee voting will be at the C. R. Criswell Insurance Office.

be two separate but simultaneous elections. One will be the polling of qualified, resident voters. The other will be polling of qualified, resident voters who own taxable property in the District.

Absentee Voting Opens Wednesday

Absentee voting for the November 7 general election will open Wednesday, October 18 and will close November 3, according to the county clerk's office in Cameron.

Persons who will be out of the county on November 7 may vote absentee, as well as persons who are unable to go to the polls in person.

Area Roundup

Price Daniel To Speak Here

CAMERON

Rep. Price Daniel, Jr. of Liberty will be guest speaker for the Cameron Rotary Club meeting Wednesday at The Texan. Rep. Daniel, a contender for Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives for the 1973 session, and his wife will also be honored at a public reception from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Wednesday in the conference room of the First National Bank.

UF More Than Half Way

ROCKDALE

The South Milam County United Fund moved to within 58 percent of its 1972-73 goal with $11,949 reported in donations and pledges, according to the campaign chairman. A small army of volunteers is in its third week of the drive toward a goal of $20,458 to assist 10 participating agencies.

Development Seminar Set

CALDWELL

The Caldwell Chamber of Commerce this week will sponsor a community development seminar to be held at the Surrey Inn. The program will consist of lectures, slides and movies, and a workshop type conference designed to acquaint local community and business leaders with the newest development planning techniques.

MP Trestle Bridge Burns

HEARNE

The Missouri Pacific railroad bridge near Hearne burned last week, in spite of efforts of the Hearne and Calvert fire departments. The 307-foot long wood and timber bridge was one of the largest of its type in the area. Cause of the fire was undetermined. A railroad spokesman said a new bridge will be constructed of concrete and steel.

Police To Use Speedgun

GEORGETOWN

Local police in Georgetown will use a Speedgun -- a traffic radar machine to use in an effort to slow down speeders in the city. The Speedgun may be used from a car, standing alongside the street, either hand held or mounted. All an officer has to do is aim the gun at a car, squeeze the trigger and he knows immediately how fast the car is going by a computerized digital readout on the back of the gun.

Commissioners Set Tax Rate

BELTON

The Commissioners Court set the Bell County tax rate at 80 cents per $100 valuation plus a county-wide 15 cents per $100 road maintenance tax. After a heated discussion, precinct lines were changed on two precincts. Property valuations in Killeen, Belton, and Temple were basically unchanged.

Straw Vote Asked On Prison

ROSEBUD

City fathers are asking citizens for a straw vote on the proposed state correctional institution, the one that Waco citizens objected to. The Rosebud News is sponsoring the straw vote, stating that there is a "remote" possibility that the Heart of Texas Council of Governments could choose the Rosebud area for the facility.

Meeting To Air Bond Issue

Cameron school district patrons are urged to attend a town meeting set for Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Methodist Fellowship Hall in Cameron.

The public meeting will cover all information about the proposed construction and renovation of the Cameron school plant, to be financed by a $1,250,000 bond issue. Voting on the issue will be held October 28.

There will be ample opportunity for questions and answers at the meeting.

The meeting is being sponsored by the School Bond Information Committee, co-chaired by John Henderson Jr. and James D. Camp.

Amount of the bond issue was revised upwards from $1,235,000 to Proposed tax rate to pay for the bonds would be $1.40 per $100 valuation, increased from the present $1.00 per $100 valuation. Property is taxed on 50 percent of market value.

This rate compares favorably with area schools, according to figures released by the information committee. For instance, Taylor bases its $1.90 rate on 50 percent of market value, and Hearne has a rate of $1.30 based on 66.66 percent of market value.

Other area school district taxing schedules include Georgetown at 70 percent of market value and a tax of $1.30; Belton at $1.85 for 35 percent of market value; Copperas Cove with a rate of $1.50 at 40 percent; Lampasas at $1.50 for 33.33 be installed.

School officials point out that present girls physical education classes must share the gym with boys classes, and overcrowding exists in the building. With a new gym built for the boys, the present, old gym could be used for girls PE classes. The new gym would be used for boys and girls athletic events.

Construction of four new classrooms is planned for Ben Milam School, required to accommodate kindergarten for the 1973-74 school term. A covered play area will be added and classrooms will be air conditioned.

At Ada Henderson, new lighting and ceiling will be installed in the cafeteria, and there will be new flooring and remodeling throughout the building, including restrooms.

The classrooms will be air conditioned.

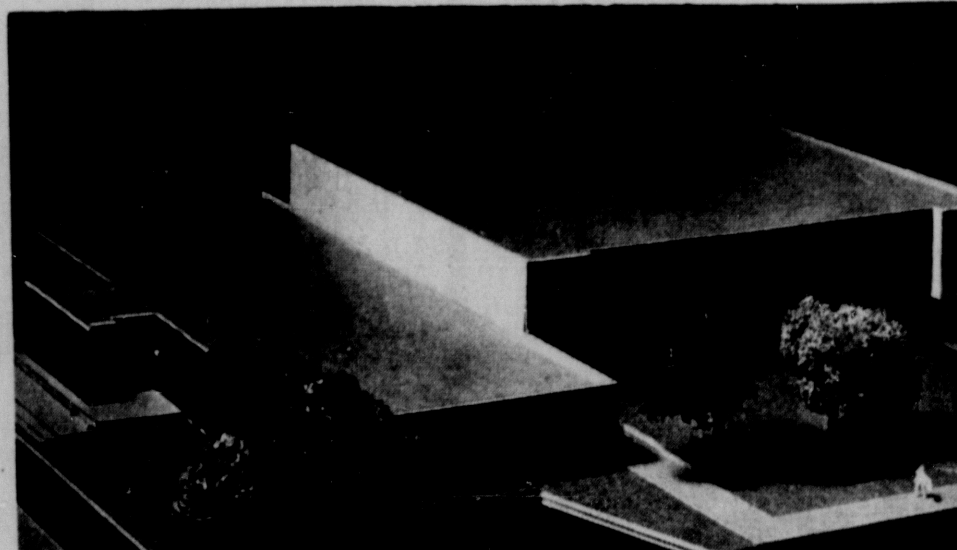

A 12,250 - square - foot gym will be built north of Yoe High, with an adjoining field house, of 7,000 square feet.

Air conditioning will be added to classrooms at Cameron Junior High School.

All school buildings will be connected by covered walkways. Lockers will be removed from inside hallways to covered walkways to lessen congestion in the halls.

The information committee was formed to provide speakers for civic clubs and other organizations and is sponsored by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce.

Camp said the invitations to the organization meeting of the information committee will be sent out. See MEETING, Page 2

PROPOSED new fieldhouse and gym, to be located north of the present gym and facing Yoe Field.

$1,250,000 with the addition of $15,000 to the contingency fund. The addition of air conditioning window units to each classroom has also been added since plans were first outlined.

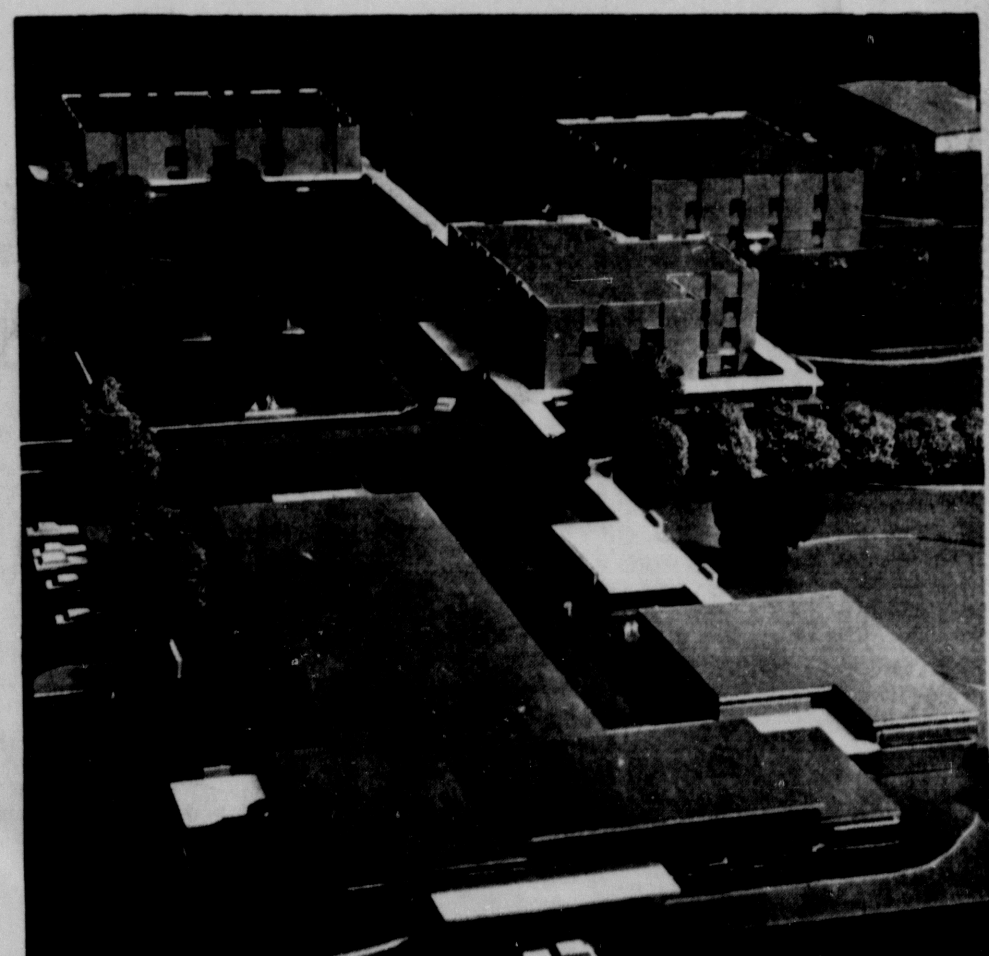

Plans call for construction of new classrooms and renovation to Ada Henderson, Ben Milam, and Yoe High school. A new gym and field house will also be built.

School officials explained that the CISD has an assessed valuation of $26,449,717, and bond election is limited to up to $2.6 million.

percent; Rosebud-Lott at $1.84 for 40 percent; and Thorndale at $1.70 at 40 percent.

Renovations and additions planned for the school buildings include construction of six new classrooms for Yoe High, remodeling of present building to include an additional classroom and office, air conditioned classrooms, new restrooms, flooring, ceilings, lighting, and corridor.

Your School, Your Children...

Again, we join the information committee in inviting you to hear presentations by committee speakers on the proposed school bond program and to attend the public meeting 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Cameron Methodist Fellowship Hall.

It is important that people feel confident of what the Cameron School Board's proposal will mean in terms of more modern schools and better education.

Air conditioning, for example, has been added to the proposal which originally was not in the bond program plan. It is still possible to introduce elements of importance to the program which will add to its service to CISD students, rather than take away.

It is your school and your children's future.

New Industry...

Formal announcement of another new industry for Cameron adds incentive to any proposed improvements or expansion project in Cameron, including the $1.25 million school bond proposal.

This new furniture operation is locating on a 10-acre site in Cameron Industrial Park, is building a 45,000 square foot plant and is planning to employ 65 people to start.

It is not the only industrial news which is being made in Cameron. More will be forthcoming, we are advised.

This project has been in the study and plan stage for some months. And Cameron was selected over a number of sites because it presents a growing list of attractions for light industry.

The Cameron Industrial Foundation has again proved its worth after this latest of a number of successful location efforts or assists in the past six years. The first $65,000 raised in the summer of 1966 has turned dozens of times by now in jobs, investment and reinvestment and community growth.

We say welcome to William Volker & Co., of Burlingame, Calif., to Cameron.

Salted Roads Pose Questions For Toronto

By Neil Harrison

TORONTO

A row this year over whether to spread communist or capitalist salt over Toronto's snowbound winter roads has added a new dimension to a perennial argument: does the city need salted roads at all?

The iron curtain battle began when a Romanian company tendered lower than Canadian companies for the supply of part of the salt needed to keep city roads clear and one of the borough councils voted to accept the non-Canadian bid.

The row lasted two weeks, amid heated exchanges. First there was a compromise proposal to sprinkle communist and capitalist salt side by side but eventually price won out and the Romanian bid was accepted.

The argument also fuelled the debate that recurs every year about whether salt is the best substance for keeping the roads clear.

The answer again has been a reluctant yes.

The arguments became heated partly thanks to a powerful pro-salt lobby representing the mines and marketers of salt.

Known as the Salt Institute, it represents 17 large North American salt companies and every year it can be relied upon to marshal all the arguments in favor of de-icing Canadian roads

"the natural way."

Many environmentalists claim that salting is not natural, since it leads to all kinds of imbalances when the melted, salty snow is dumped but the loudest opponents of salting are automobile owners.

Every Canadian knows the horrors of looking under his car one morning and finding the first brown streaks of rust -- streaks that will inexorably spread to most of the lower bodywork.

Rusting cars is accepted as part of the troubles of winter -- in large measure due to the salt that is scattered on the roads every day as part of every city's very efficient snow and ice clearance programs.

While only the salt institute bothers with statistics, most Canadians do recognize that salting has many benefits for road safety, savings in vehicle damage, and prevention of injuries.

Letters to the Editor

October 8, 1972

Dear Mr. Luecke,

Enclosed is a copy of a warranty deed which I found very interesting and hope you will also. It mentions a town named Oxford in Milam county. I have never heard of this town, was there such a place and if so, where? I hope you or some of your readers can shed some light on this.

I saw the original of this document after talking with my neighbor. We are both history buffs and when she found out I was born and raised in Texas she brought this over to see if I knew where Milam county was. I was really surprised to see it did read Milam county and we both had a good laugh. But of course, I had no thoughts of Oxford, that is the reason for this letter. Hope you can help.

I lived in Cameron most of my life and graduated from Yoe High. (That was a long time ago.) I do keep in touch with Cameron through the Herald as my mother is a subscriber and I must say it really brightens her day when it arrives in the mail. I enjoy reading it even if a great many of the names are new to me.

Peruvians Await Anchovy's Return

By Jose Calmet

LIMA, Peru

The great shoals of anchovies on which the Peruvian fishing industry depends are expected to return to the South American coastline as cooler Antarctic water moves inshore.

Fishermen found their catches sharply depleted early this year when the cold waters of the Humboldt Current were displaced by the tropical Nino Current which flows down the western South American coast from Panama.

But scientists of the Maritime Institute of Peru (IMARPE) conducted a massive oceanographic survey this summer and now predict a return of the cold current and a consequent rise in the number of fish.

Peru is the world's biggest anchovy producer, with 30,000 people involved in fishing operations or fishmeal production.

The advent of the warm Nino Current caused a considerable shortage of anchovies from March onwards, and fishing operations were suspended at the end of June.

The anchovies, regarded by scientists as the world's most prolific ocean breeders, thrive on the plankton -- microscopic forms of organic life -- carried by the Humboldt Current.

The Humboldt Current also carried less oxygen, which in turn limits the numbers of the anchovy and prevents the fish from virtually swamping the ocean through over-breeding.

Each female fish produces 20,000 eggs three times a year and scientists say the 10 to 12 million tons caught by Peruvian fishermen annually cuts back the numbers and leaves more oxygen for further breeding.

The Nino Current normally flows about 180 miles off the Peruvian coast, but every seven or eight years it turns inward and its warm, blue water flows down the shoreline for seven months.

The phenomenon -- scientists still do not know what causes it -- appeared in this form, known as the "small Nino," in 1957 and 1965. But twice, in 1891 and 1925, the current stayed inshore for more than six years and was called the "Great Nino."

Scientists from the Maritime Institute say their researches show the water off Peru is already cooling and conditions should return to normal within four months.

Scientists say that the Humboldt Current has not in fact moved away, but that the Nino Current started to flow over it. The Humboldt flows through a 60-mile wide channel between 20,000 and 23,000 feet deep which starts nearly one mile off the shore.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
Attorney General of Texas

Last week we discussed the principle of unit pricing. Open dating is a companion to unit pricing.

Open dating simply means that anyone going to the store can tell how long the product has been packaged. As with unit pricing, some Texas stores have voluntarily gone to the open dating system.

Many of you know perishable items such as milk, eggs and bread, as well as many other items, are dated as they are packaged. This date may be the date on which the product is to be picked up by the route man or it may be the actual date that the product is packaged.

For example, assume that milk has a shelf life of seven days. If milk is bottled on April 10th, it would be picked up from the store by the route man on April 17th. Either the date of the 10th or the 17th may be shown on the carton so long as the route man is familiar with the system and knows that the milk is to be picked up on April 17th. The markings are usually found at the top of the carton and are in code. Thus, in our example, if you purchase the milk on April 16th, you would get milk that had been in the grocery store for six days.

The same thing might be true of a loaf of bread. Bread of course has a shorter shelf life. Typically, dating of bread is done with different colored ties used to close the plastic bread containers. You might have a red tie for Monday, a green tie for Tuesday, a blue tie for Wednesday and so forth for each baking day of the week.

The route man knows that he is to pick up all blue tie loaves of bread on a certain day of the week. You as the consuming public, however, are not able to tell which loaf of bread is the freshest.

If you intend to use the product immediately, it would probably make no difference to you whether it had been on the shelf a short time or not. It would still be fresh when you used it. An example of this would be the purchase of a dozen eggs one morning to make an angel food cake that afternoon. Since the eggs would be used on the same day of their purchase you would not have the problem of spoilage. On the other hand, if you plan to keep the eggs a few days before using them you probably would want to get the freshest eggs available.

The next time you see your route man delivering some perishable item, you might ask him how his code works. By doing so you can assure yourself that you are an informed consumer. You will know that you are getting the freshest product available.

"Gathering Earths Bounty" was the program for Fleur de Lis Garden Club's October meeting at the Cameron Community Center.

Mrs. Willie Faulkner, a nationally accredited flower show judge, was guest speaker for the program on constructing dried flower arrangements. She said dried arrangements made for judging should be well conditioned, attract and hold attention and have creative appeal.

Mrs. Faulkner showed three arrangements to illustrate her talk. Particularly eye catching was a dried arrangement set in an iron stove leg that had been sprayed with gold. The arrangement included a large brown-tone flower made of cotton burs and a sunflower center, copper wire and fencing wire, dried mullin leaves, dried okra and gold painted hardware screen.

Mrs. Faulkner discussed arrangements brought by club members and said judging would be based on a scale giving design 30 points, combination of material 20, personal expression or originality 15, distinction 20 and color 15.

Hostesses, Mrs. Edwin Cauley, Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. Edward Macal served sour cream pound cake, sand tarts, nuts, punch and coffee to 15 members and two guests following the program.

New Needlepoint Is Creative World Of Color And Design

Needlepoint has invaded the world of bright colors, creative design and fashion. But, if you still think of needlepoint in terms of tiny flowers on a beige background, Mrs. Eloise Prater of Eloise's Stitchery Parlor, Temple, will quickly change your impression.

Mrs. Prater, guest speaker for the Arts and Service League meeting at the home of Mrs. Monroe Fuchs Thursday afternoon, displayed needlepoint designs in mod colors for everything from belts and guitar straps to rugs and the traditional pillows and chair covers.

Colors were the bright and sunny hues popular now, as well as the traditional soft shades. And the finished products were framed as a picture, inserted on a pillow, looped to decorate a Christmas tree, even formed a pocket for a long velvet skirt.

Mrs. Prater said the interest in needlepoint and quickpoint spanned the ages from the active teenager to the senior citizen.

She was introduced by Mrs. Bernay Dusek.

Mrs. Bill Dase, League president, introduced new members: Mrs. Maxie Morgan, Mrs. Walter Pyle, Mrs.

Larry Coker and Mrs. Ed Cauley; and guests: Mrs. John Homerstad, Mrs. J. J. Heitman, Mrs. Theo Aschenbeck, Mrs. Douglas Perrin, Mrs. Bobby Stanislav and Mrs. Max Graham.

Following the program an assortment of pound cakes and French chocolate were served in the dining room. A bouquet of multi-colored rosebuds and baby's breath centered the serving table where Mrs. James Camp presided at the silver coffee service.

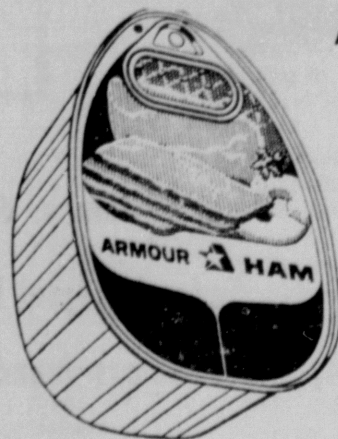

Keepsake needlepoint bookmarks were presented to members and guests.

BAREFOOT SANDERS AND SEN. LLOYD BENTSEN

Bentsen Endorses Sanders

DALLAS

Senator Lloyd Bentsen of Texas has endorsed Barefoot Sanders for the U. S. Senate in his contest against Senator John Tower.

At a joint press conference, Bentsen said, "I am here for the sole purpose of showing my support for Barefoot Sanders."

"I know him to be a man of integrity and ability who would effectively represent Texas in Washington."

"He knows the Senate from his association as Legislative Counsel for President Johnson during the years 1967-68, and he has the background to serve Texas well in the Senate."

In response to a question by reporters about his absentee record, Bentsen said, "Last year I was present for 90% of the roll call votes, and this year I have been present for 92%."

Sanders has repeatedly talked about John Tower's poor attendance record, which includes absences 45% of the time in 1970 and 47% of the time in 1967.

Barefoot Sanders was born and educated in Dallas and attended the University of Texas from which he received a law degree. He served in the Texas Legislature from Dallas between 1952-58.

Briscoe Enters Final Campaign

AUSTIN

Dolph Briscoe, Democratic gubernatorial candidate is entering the final five weeks of his campaign with enthusiastic optimism.

"The reaction, the reception that I have been getting in my travels over the state has been very good," he said.

Briscoe's general theme has remained constant -- that the public's confidence in state government needs to be restored; there needs to be greater fiscal accountability and control through a State Budget Commission; the leadership of tomorrow must be concerned more with serving the people of this state rather than building a political machine; and, that he is the man who can end the divisiveness and bring about the most responsive government to all the people of Texas.

The Uvalde rancher-banker has already demonstrated his ability to work with a variety of factions holding widely diverse opinions when he put his personal prestige on the line and made the recent State Democratic Convention in Houston one of harmony and unity when many people felt it would be impossible.

"I am proud that we proved once again that Texas Democrats have the tolerance, the intelligence, and the energy to work through our party for all the people of Texas," Briscoe said.

The Democratic candidate, however, did not rest on his laurels after the Convention but undertook a heavy travel schedule that put him out where the voters are.

In little more than week following the Convention he appeared before the Lower Rio Grande Valley Chamber of Commerce in McAllen; the American Society of Agricultural Engineers sectional meeting at Bandera; opening of the East Texas State Fair in Tyler; the Dallas County Employees in Dallas; Associated General Contractors in Austin; the friends of East Texas State University at Commerce; annual meeting of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce in Del Rio; and served as Parade Marshal at the "Come and Take It" Celebration at Gonzales.

Sen. Dole Says McGovern Takes Opposing Stands

WASHINGTON

The Great Debate of the Presidential campaign "is the one that's been going on for some months between George McGovern and himself," says U. S. Senator Bob Dole.

In a recent statement, Senator Dole talked about George McGovern's "campaign of confusion, reversal and irresponsibility" which may have peaked recently when the news media reported at least three contradictory positions on the question of farm price parity.

Campaign research has shown that McGovern has taken multiple and opposing stands on such issues as Vietnam, amnesty, abortion, welfare, marijuana, the economy, taxes, and Pierre Salinger's visit with the Communists in Paris, Dole said.

National Campaign Director Clark MacGregor described McGovern's contradictory positions when he said McGovern "has been on both sides of so many issues that I understand McGovern headquarters refers to his position papers as 'McGovern sandwiches'."

LOTS! SPORTS-
Oklahoma, Mighty and Magnificent Big Red Oklahoma, is certainly more loaded with talent than Darrell Royal's young University of Texas football team. But, we have a sneaking suspicion that when the fur's through flying Saturday at the Cotton Bowl Oklahoma and a National TV audience will both have a healthier respect for old Bevo... Grant Teaff, Baylor's intelligent and handsome young new football coach, gets one of those initiations which come to all first-year SWC Coaches. He gets to take his Bears to the Hills of Arkansas for the first time Saturday. That's like going onto Gaudale canal without Boot Training.
Guess who is the Total Offense, and Passing, leader among all collegians in the U. S. of A.? None other than Gary Keithley, Alvin's Flame-throwing young giant. Have you heard the story that when Arkansas Genius Frank Broyles retires that Raymond Berry, the Hog Receiver Coach and All-Pro immortal, will become Mr. Razorback?
Man, if crucial conference games are your bag just tool on over to College Station Saturday night where Jim Carlen's Tech Red Raiders and the Texas Aggies get it on. Tech, talented, explosive team, cannot afford another SWC loss. And, Emory Ballard's Aggies, after a disappointing loss to Army, can bring smiles back to Aggieland if they get off on the right foot in the SWC chase. Since both TT and the Aggies are definite Title Contenders, it could get rough... Baylor may win the unique name derby of 1972, with a defensive back who answers to Tommy Turnipseed. He follows in the footsteps of SMU's John Knee and UT Place-Kicking Great Happy Feller.
BEAR: "THEY DARED US"
In discussing his team's falling in love with the Wish-bone Offense, Alabama Master Bear Bryant commented, "Just about every team we played dared us to throw and we completed 64 per cent."

... Alvin's TCU Pitching reat Frank Johnstone had a 6-1 summer record at Liberal, Kansas.
Just checking, but did you realize the Southwest Conference returned its leading 1971 Passer in Joe Ferguson of Arkansas, its leading rusher in SMU's Alvin Maxson and its leading receiver in Mike Reppond of Arkansas? ... Blackie Sherrod, describing the 1971 Duane Thomas, "... weighing 220-pounds and standing 6-1 and able to run through a collapsing tunnel without getting dusty." ... The same Mr. Sherrod, on the Cowboy's Stay - at - home Calvin Hill: "... towering 6-4 and weighing 227 and capable of leaping tall scarificial masses of flesh at a single bound."
The colorfully descriptive Sherrod describes Cowboy Rookie Fullback Bob Newhouse, the UH All-America as, "A Rookie who has to stand on tippy toes to reach the Door-knob."
First Geese In State
Recent cold Canadian air has pushed the first geese into the state, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.
The harbingers of the fall waterfowl hunting season were found in the vicinity of Eagle Lake the last week of September.
Department game management officer Leo Kohleffel reported about six speckled - belly geese there.
Texas has a split season on geese and brant this year, Nov. 4-28, and Dec. 9, 1972 - Jan 24, 1973.
much of the available light.
The color study made a major contribution in a campaign for passage of "color" legislation in Massachusetts and starting in 1962 deer hunters were required to wear at least 200 square inches of daylight fluorescent orange while afield. Following passage of the law, Massachusetts enjoyed four straight deer seasons without a single hunter being mistaken for game or injured in the line of another hunter's fire. No previous shooting season on record in the state had been able to boast a comparable safety record.
Hunting is established as a safe sport. Nevertheless, men are mistaken for deer and are shot. Before this year's hunting season, the wise Texas hunter will be wearing a hunter orange vest or, at the very least, a cap made in the glowing bright fluorescent color.

8th Grade Downs Marlin

The Cameron Yoemen completed the first zone game with a 36-6 victory over Lampasas Friday night. The defense was its old reliable self while the offense was there to match it. George Whiteside and Will Turner supplied much of the power behind the victory. Whiteside scored two touchdowns while Turner passed for two touchdowns. The defense was able to capitalize on the Badgers mistakes by falling on three Lampasas fumbles and intercepting three passes.
The Yoemen wasted no time in beginning the scoring, doing so on their first possession of the night. With the assistance of two penalties against the Badgers the Yoemen were able to muster up 54 yards in two plays.
Deep in Badger territory quarterback Will Turner made a success out of a pitch out to Jackie Chubb and Chubb ran for the goal putting 6 Yoemen points on the scoreboard.
The Yoemen came back with two TDs in the fourth quarter. They were scored by Andrew Bailey and Aaron Miller. Gregory Kelley scored the PAT. The final score was 34-12.
Marlin also scored in the 3rd quarter but failed the PAT. Marlin also scored in the fourth quarter.
Cameron came back with two TDs in the fourth quarter. They were scored by Andrew Bailey and Aaron Miller. Gregory Kelley scored the PAT. The final score was 34-12.
Defensive standouts were Julian Martinez, Andrew Bailey, Thomas Canizales, and Mike Barr.
Offensive standouts included Brian Wilkinson, Gregory Kelley, Kelvin Kelley, Dennis Mueck, and Aaron Miller.
The seventh grade lost its tilt with Marlin, 42-6.
The seventh and eighth grades will play Gatesville here Tuesday, October 17.

PENSKE On Performance

Highway accidents are tragic enough without the added confusion of onlookers. Knowing what to do when you come upon an accident could save lives. Observe the following rules if you are witness to an accident:
-Park your car in a safe place, well off the road.
-Place flares, flags, etc., and see to it that someone directs traffic, especially if the highway is partially blocked.
-If the motor in a disabled vehicle is still running, turn it off. This could prevent a fire.
-Summon help. If no one else will do it, do it yourself.
-Do what you can for the injured person, but do not move him unless he is in danger of further injury from fire or passing vehicles.
-Cover the injured with a blanket, even in warm weather. This could prevent further shock.
-When police arrive, tell them what you know and let them take over.

Yoemen Down Lampasas 36-6 For Easy Win In First Zone Battle

By Marilyn Hauk

Gene Kopriva's PAT attempt was a little wide but the Yoemen still had an advantage with 6 points and 8:54 left in the first quarter.
The second quarter brought two touchdowns to the Yoemen. The Yoemen completed 62 yards in ten plays. Whiteside stormed across the goal, Turner then passed to Chubb for two points. The score was 14-0 Cameron's favor with 3:12 left on the clock.
Late in the second quarter the Badgers sent a punt to the Yoemen that managed to sail only 12 yards. The Yoemen took over on the Badger 27 and scored four plays later. Whiteside carried the ball over from the 6-yard line. Turner scored two extra points with 1:12 left in the half.
Late in the third quarter David Horning recovered a fumble at the Badger 26, but a penalty moved the Yoemen back to the 30. Gary Thweatt got behind Lampasas defender Jimmy Delgado and Turner hit him with a pass for six more points. Kopriva kicked the PAT to give the Yoemen 29-0 and 11 seconds left in the third quarter.
Lampasas then took the kickoff and drove to their own 33. A 49 pass-run play to Lancaster put Badger points on the scoreboard.
Their PAT attempt was foiled and Cameron still led 29-6.
Late in the game Kopriva intercepted a Lampasas pass and gained possession on their 27-yard line. The Yoemen kept going after recovering Alex Gill's fumble at the 9.
Sam Ellison scored the final touchdown with 1:18 left in the game. Kopriva's kick wound up the scoring with the Yoemen winning 36-6.
